„what is the basis for a peaceful future?“

York
"We have more in common than that which divides us; I can’t ask us to "love" one another, but accept that we are a very diverse world and embrace the wonder of our diversity."

Kristiansand
“We (all) need to be firm and visible in supporting the fundamental values of democracy and human rights as the fundament for lasting peace now, and in the future.”

Rishon LeZion
In order to achieve real peace, we need to achieve first trust, understanding and communication between us.

Enschede
“Get to know and respect each other”.

Münster
Peace is based on mutual understanding and understanding is achieved through respectful communication.

Mühlhausen
Peace cannot be won against one another, only together.

Ryazan
The basis of the peaceful future is development of partner friendly relations between countries, based on the principals of mutual respect and equality, observance of the foundations of international law and UN resolutions.

Lublin
Respect for human beings, their rights and freedoms is the starting point for creating peaceful relations between societies, nations and states.

Orléans
To keep peace, we must never give up searching for mutual fate.

Monastir
Our twinning with Münster – for 50 years – is a demonstration for peace.
