HISTORICAL TOWN HALL

Münster's Landmark in the Heart of the City

The Historical Rathaus (Town Hall) at Prinzipalmarkt is from the middle of the 14th century and, with its high gable, has no equal in Germany. History has been written here. In 1648, the Spanish-Dutch Peace Treaty – part of the Peace of Westphalia – was confirmed in the Peace Hall. After being largely destroyed in the Second World War, the characteristic gabled building with its arches, was faithfully reconstructed in the 1950's, financed above all by the donations in kind and money of merchants and citizens and through the town hall lotteries. The Rathaus (Town Hall) and the adjacent Stadtweinhaus (City Wine House) are now used for cultural and prestigious occasions and for official receptions. The meetings of the political councils also take place here.

The largest room in the Town Hall – the ballroom – and the adjacent armoury can be provided with various types of seating. Furthermore, small meeting rooms are to be found in the Stadtweinhaus. These rooms have fixed block-formation seating.
