Christmas Market around the Town Hall

The largest and oldest Christmas market in Münster welcomes visitors beneath a romantic canopy of lights in the inner courtyard of the Town Hall. There is something for all ages in the huge selection of jewellery and craft items, plenty of delicious delicacies and a nostalgic children's merry-go-round.

Lights Market St. Lamberti

At the foot of the mighty St. Lamberti-Kirche, the little blue huts of the lights market create a special sparkle. Surrounded by magnificent gabled houses, the Christmas decorations and Münster's largest Christmas tree compete in a bid to outshine one another.

Christmas Village around Kiepenkerl

In the little Christmas village around the statue of Münster's Kiepenkerl, quaint stalls beneath a beautiful Christmas tree serve Westphalian specialities and display various hand-crafts, inviting you to linger awhile and savour it all in the wonderfully cosy atmosphere.

Shopping experience

All around the five Christmas markets, Münster's shops invite you to browse through the wide selection of gifts on offer: beneath the Prinzipalmarkt's arches, in the Ludgeri-straße and Salzstraße pedestrian areas, on Stubengasse and Hansecarré, in the districts of Rothenburg, Kiepenkerlviertel, Kuhviertel, Alter Fischmarkt and Hörsterstraße, and around the station and the harbour. However much you have to spend, whether you're looking for chic classics or highly fashionable accessories, culinary delights or rare antiques, Münster is full of small treasures which are hard to find anywhere else. Shops in the city centre are open until at least 7 pm from Monday to Saturday, with large stores and chains open until 8 pm.
